ABOUT THE PRODUCER

Deanna Mance is a contemporary abstract artist. Her aesthetic, colorful motifs of intricate elements organically arranged, reflects her interest in overlooked details in the everyday, and patterns and shapes inspired by textiles and collage. She uses freehand techniques and spontaneous mark making as a tool that allows the work to build and grow without restrictions of self-awareness or premeditation. With her print collection debuted in the Monmade x CDCP Art Print Collection, Deanna transforms her hand drawn aesthetics into vector art to create high quality works of art with clean lines and shapes that can be scaled to any size.

SUSTAINABILITY INFORMATION

Meets sustainablyMonmade Dimensions

- Woman-owned business
- Producer makes every effort to use materials that are non-toxic, water-based, and water-soluble paints to create original artwork
- For prints featured in the Monmade x CDCP Art Print Collection, producer uses ink jet printing, archival ink, gouache, and acrylic. Gouache use non-toxic binders that are safe for the environment and human health
- Producer minimizes use of materials (e.g., uses a wet pallet box to keep paint fresh up to several weeks; recycled materials for storage and cleaning of studio)
- For her print paper on producer uses a local vendor, Silver Eye Center for Photography. For metal prints, she is still searching for a responsibly minded local printing studio, though the aluminum panels are 100% recyclable at their end-of-life
